

Kimono dining chair

Kimono

For modern Japanese people, the kimono is a symbol of thoughtfulness, grace and respect for tradition, which is exactly where designer Pascal Bosetti has drawn his inspiration for Kimono. The similarities between the chair and its source of inspiration are particularly evident in the seams on the seat, which add both a graphic look and separate the arms and cover from each other – just like a real kimono. Kimono is moulded, and will therefore hold its characteristic curved shape for many years to come. The soft seat upholstery also means that your dinner parties will probably never make it into the living room.

PURE - FABRIC

Pure is a 100% pure natural product made of 40% linen and 60% cotton. The vintage-look material means that every metre is unique and each piece of furniture can vary in colour and appearance. However, this merely enriches the look and gives the fabric its own unique character. It is precisely this complex interplay of colour that makes Pure such a unique upholstery fabric, highlighted by a STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® certification that ensures no dangerous chemicals are used in production.
